

Rich History. Bright Future. Celebrating 150 Years

On October 3, 1873, Coralville officially became incorporated as a town in Johnson County, Iowa. From October 2022 through October 2023, Coralville will be marking our sesquicentennial (our 150th anniversary) to honor our past, celebrate the present, and look toward the future.

To commemorate this historic milestone, we'll roll out free, special celebrations over the next year. Visit <https://www.coralville.org/949/150th-Anniversary> for more information.
