

FISHING, CIRCA 1910

Cousins Edwin “Ned “ Paintin and Clifford Koser fishing the Iowa River near the mills. The boys’ families were early settlers of Coralville. Clifford was the son of Edward and Harriet (Paintin) Koser. Edward was the owner of Koser’s Grocery Stores in Coralville and North Liberty. Edward was also the Mayor of Coralville for 33 years! Edwin Paintin was the only son of John “Jack” Paintin and Francis (Robinson) Paintin and his uncle James Paintin Sr. was mayor of Coralville for 5 years.