

1980s CORALVILLE STRIP

Coralville has been known as a commercial and industrial center since its beginning along the Iowa River. With the growth of car travel and intersection of highways and later Interstate 80, Coralville became known as the “Hub of Hospitality” with many hotels and motels in the area. This is a snap shot of the ever changing signs along the Coralville Strip in the 1980s.